THIS VIRGINIAN HAS THREE WIVES

That Being Two Too Many, He Goes to Penitentiary for Three Years.

BRISTOL, VA., April 3.—William Summerfield, a Virginian, thirty years old, was convicted of bigamy in the Circuit Court at Abingdon to-day after one jury had failed to agree, and was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. It was in evidence that he has a trio of wives, all living in the same section, including a pretty bride of sixteen years, whom he married at Abingdon. He first married Minerva Messie in Lee county Va. three years ago. He next married a Gray county woman, and a few months later met, wooed and won Mary Wells, his child-bride.

EDUCATORS WILL WED

PLANT SEIZED BY REVENUE OFFICERS

Four Thousand Gallons of Alcohol Confiscated Because of Law Violation.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BRISTOL, VA., April 3.—A seizure similar to that made at Tullahoma, Tenn., this week was made here to-day, when Revenue Agent Dixon and Deputy Collector J. McElroy, of Abingdon, took possession of the plant of the Bristol Industrial Alcohol Company and confiscated 4,000 gallons of alcohol, valued at $3,000. The owners declined to give out any information any further than to say that the seizure was made on account of the failure of the company to comply with the internal revenue laws. As in the Tullahoma instance, no arrests were made, although it is understood that the seizure was made under sections 2225 and 2226 of the Revised Statutes.

The revenue agent states that he presumes that the company will be permitted to resume by giving a satisfactory bond. This company is composed of Bristol capitalists.

R. HUNTER BEAZLEY.

J. J. Brinkley, last evening young Taylor was induced to come to Corapeake by a messenger, and was held there in the bride's home by Constable Jones until a man was sent to Gatesville, where Register of Deeds Martin Kellogg was aroused from his bed and issued the permit. After the wedding Taylor left Corapeake without his bride.

Heaviest Month's Work.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SPENCER, N. C., April 3.—The Spencer shops of the Southern Railway turned out during the month of March sixty-eight locomotives for service on the five divisions running into Spencer, which is said to be the largest month's work in the history of the shop. Of the sixty-eight engines leaving the shops, thirty-six were in for heavy repairs, costing in some instances $2,000 each. The force of employees at Spencer has been greatly increased, and it is said every man worthy of work is being employed. In the boiler department the force is the largest in the history of the shop. The monthly pay-roll at Spencer is said to be $150,000.

Work on First High School.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., April 3.—Work was begun yesterday on the first high school to be established in Alleghany county. It will be built and conducted under the auspices of Orange Presbytery, and will cost about $10,000. One hundred acres of land has been purchased at Glade Valley, and the citizens of that community have contributed about $1,000 toward the enterprise.

Many Visitors Expected.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, VA., April 3.—It is believed that the meeting of the Republican State Executive Council, to be held next Saturday night, will be the means of bringing several hundred party workers from all parts of Virginia to the city. The committee in charge of the meeting, together with Chairman Stump and Secretary Hart, will be in session at the Hotel Carroll.

Alleged Deserter Held.
WINCHESTER, VA., April 3.—Charged with being a deserter from the United States Army, Edward Minnick was arrested in this city by Officer Manney. Minnick was taken up yesterday for trespassing on the Baltimore and Ohio Railway property, and to-day the additional charge was preferred against him. He is said to have confessed to Chief Seabright to being a deserter.

Two Buildings Burn.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ELKTON, VA., April 3.—Two frame residences occupied by W. C. Cooper and G. R. McBryde, were destroyed by fire early this morning. All the furniture was saved. The fire started from a defective flue. The buildings were owned by a banking company and were insured.

Leaves for Europe.
NORFOLK, VA., April 3.—The yacht liberty, having aboard her owner, Joseph Pulitzer, editor of the New York World, which came into Hampton Roads yesterday for coal, provisions and mail, sailed for Europe to-day.

Elks Go "Dry."
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SUFFOLK, VA., April 3.—The local lodge of Elks last night by a vote of 29 to 10 committed themselves to sustained prohibition in their home. The Elks Home here has always been "dry," no effort to introduce intoxicants having been made until the town went "dry."

with the Baptist Sunday school either as scholar, teacher or officer for the past sixty years, except during the war, and was president of the State Sunday School Association of Virginia for one term.

TUCKER ON EASTERN SHORE.

Large Crowd Gathers to Hear the Candidate.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
PARKSLEY, VA., April 3.—Hon. Harry St. George Tucker, candidate for the nomination for Governor of Virginia, spoke in Hopkins Hall here this afternoon, before a large assemblage of business men and farmers, many coming in by trains and by teams from out of town points. The candidate was scheduled to speak at Chincoteague this afternoon, the arrangements being changed by Dr. J. W. Bowdoin, of Bloxom, who had assumed charge of the speaker's program. After being introduced by John R. Rew, a representative in the General Assembly, Mr. Tucker outlined the different things he would do if elected Governor, saying that he did not believe in the education of children through politics, and that he had nothing to conceal. While on the Eastern Shore, Mr. Tucker is the guest of Dr. Bowdoin, of Bloxom.

MONEY FOR HATTERS

Allied Unions of American Federation of Labor Come to Aid.
NEWARK, N. J., April 3.—Money in large amounts began to be put into the treasury of the United Hatters of North America to-day as a result of the assessment of all trades unions by the American Federation of Labor. The assessment was ordered on Tuesday by the general executive board of the federation, and to-day the striking hatters commenced to receive substantial returns. A check for $1,000 from the musical union hall Thursday evening. The city was the first remittance.

BOY'S AEROPLANE FLIES

Chas. Hendrickson Goes 100 Feet on a Jersey Bank—Hopes to Fly High.
RED BANK, N. J., April 3.—With an aeroplane of his own design, Charles Hendrickson, after several trials and in a light breeze, flew about 100 feet to-day at Middletown, a few miles from here. As the flight was made under discouraging conditions, the youthful aeronaut expects to make a higher and longer flight soon. The trial was made from a little knoll on the Hendrickson farm.

FIRM SUSPENDS

John Dickinson and Company, of Chicago, Operated Many Offices.
CHICAGO, April 3.—Announcement was made on the board of trade to-day of the suspension of the firm of John Dickinson and Company, grain, stock and provisions brokers. In addition to its membership on the board of trade, the company also held membership on the Consolidated Stock Exchange of New York. The firm also had from twenty-five to thirty offices scattered throughout the country. The liabilities were said to be in the neighborhood of $300,000.
